

To Whom It May Concern:

I am delighted that you have requested a letter of recommendation for Mr I have known Mr. since 2011. I was able to interact with him on many occasions outside the classroom. It pleases me to learn that Mr. has now chosen a route to undertake further studies regarding International Law at your University and it has come as no surprise to me that Mr. has chosen to further his studies in the field of International Arbitration.

Since I have known Mr..... I have found him to be one of the most conscientious and diligent people that I have met. He has always been involved within the activities at the university. He never missed an opportunity to participate and was well aware of the high standards that Istanbul University have set. I have found Mr. to be a very intelligent and a forward thinker both as a student and a person. He continued to excel at our university and even outside he continued to question me on matters to further his knowledge. He has been innovative and proactive in finding new ways to adapt to the needs of being a good student. In fact I had no doubt in my mind that Mr..... would pursue further studies as he has the aptitude and ability for it.

Mr..... is academically minded and this allows him to be resourceful whilst researching. I am well aware of the rigorous training that was required at University regarding the study of law. Mr..... was always on top of most situations.

My personal opinion of Mr..... is that he has the ability to do whatever he puts his mind too. That was the main quality which I was able to observe. He is a smart student who continued to try and learn new things. I really do hope that Mr. would one day have the chance to experience a Western education, as the skills that he would acquire would benefit him greatly. He has shown me that he can process information from many different sources and this allows for opinions to formulate. He is a rounded student with strong opinions, but an open-minded person who continues to want to learn about other peoples and cultures. He makes every effort to understand differing opinions on a subject matter.

Mr..... is very affable and has a genuine personality. I have found him to be such a warm person and there was never a moment where I could say that he was not liked. I am sure Mr will be an asset to your institution. Mr has the maturity and ability to see through his chosen course with a sustained amount of commitment. It is a pleasure to have the opportunity to write this reference on his behalf. I am certain he will add value and bring forth valuable qualities to his work. I wish him the utmost best for his new role.

Prof. Dr. ...
.... University
The Dean of Faculty of Law